O.202-A. The Registrar will, on the recommendation of the Research Board, draw up a list of approved supervisors and revise such list from time to time.

O.203. All research work will be conducted in and under the supervision of the University, but the Syndicate on the recommendation of the Research Board may recognize within the territorial limits of the University, such centers for the conduct of research work by its students as it might deem fit for the purpose.

Explanation. The territorial limits of the University will be the territorial limits of Jodhpur Development Authority as notified by the government of Rajasthan from time to time.

O.204 (i) A Professor shall not have, at any given point of time, more than Eight Ph.D. scholars and Five M.Phil. scholars or 10 Ph.D. scholars (if M.Phil. students are not registered with the supervisor). In case of retired Professor, who gets approval after retirement, can have a maximum number of five scholars, at any given point of time.

(ii) An Associate Professor shall not have, at any given point of time, more than Five Ph.D. scholars and Three M.Phil. scholars or Seven Ph.D. (if M.Phil. students are not registered with the supervisor). In case of retired Associate Professor, who gets approval after retirement, can have a maximum number of three scholars, at any given point of time.

(iii) An Assistant Professor shall not have, at any given point of time, more than Three Ph.D. scholars and Two M.Phil. scholars or Five Ph.D. (if M.Phil. students are not registered with the supervisor). In case of retired Assistant Professor, who gets approval after retirement, can have a maximum number of two scholars, at any given point of time.

O.205. At the beginning of every academic session the university shall determine vacant seats for Ph. D. on the basis of available approved supervisors and publish the vacancies on university website or by advertisement. The university shall invite applications from candidates who wish to appear in JNVU-MPET. The qualified candidates shall be given provisional admission to the Ph. D. degree against vacant seats according to the JNVU-MPET Rules.

O.206. The fee for registration, tuition, examination and others will be as per the decision of the Academic Council taken from time to time.

O.207. The application for final registration, duly approved by the Departmental Council (DC), shall be placed before the Research Board of the Faculty concerned, which, after satisfying itself on all points, will grant the application for admission.

O.208. A supervisor once appointed shall not be changed unless circumstances so warrant. Such changes shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor on the recommendation of the Research Board and reported to the Academic Council.

O.208-A. A Research Scholar will be allowed to change the title of the subject only once which should not be later than six months before the actual submission of the thesis or when a request for the appointment of examiners are made.

The modification shall not amount to changing the subject entirely in which case it will be deemed to be a case for fresh registration.

O.209. Deleted

O.209-A. After having been provisionally admitted, each Ph.D student shall be required to undertake a course work as provided in JNVU-MPET Rules.

O.210. Every candidate shall be duly enrolled as a research student of the University on payment of the prescribed fee before he is registered for the degree. The application for enrolment shall be sent to the University on the prescribed form along with the prescribed fee and the original Master's or equivalent degree and the migration certificate of the University from which he took the Master's or equivalent degree.

Note : Candidates already enrolled in the University shall not be required to enroll again.

O.211. Every finally registered candidate shall have to reside in the territorial limit of the university for a period of two years from the date of final registration. Provided that in special cases the period of residence can be reduced by the Vice-Chancellor up to six months. Such special circumstances shall be recorded in writing, and approved by the Research Board.

O.211-A. The Vice-Chancellor, on the recommendation of the Supervisor, may permit the candidate to work outside the University, ordinarily for a maximum duration of not more than six months (during the period residence required) for collection of material or field study or library work as directed by the Supervisor.

O.212. The Supervisor shall keep a record of the progress of the candidate. The progress report of the candidate shall be forwarded to the Vice-Chancellor by the supervisor through the Head of the Department at six monthly intervals. The reports shall be submitted within a month of the date on which each six monthly period elapses. If there is no supervisor, the candidate himself shall make the six monthly reports.

Registration of a research scholar is liable to be cancelled at any time if his consecutive six monthly reports are not satisfactory or if the candidate has not been making satisfactory progress in his work.

O.213. Ordinarily no candidate shall be permitted to be on the Ph.D. rolls for more than four years. If the thesis is not submitted within 4 years of the enrolment of the candidate, he/she shall seek the permission of the Vice-Chancellor for extension of time. The Vice-Chancellor may grant extension up to a period of one year. In exceptional cases another extension of one year could be granted. Such cases for extension shall be reported to the Research Board.

O.213-A. A candidate who may have exceeded the total period of six years of registration for the submission of his thesis may be permitted to register only on condition that he/she shall submit the thesis within two years of re-registration.

O.214. On a report from the Supervisor that the candidate's thesis is likely to be submitted within six months, the Head of the Department shall make a request to the Vice-Chancellor for appointing examiner from a panel of names. The Supervisor shall give a panel of at least eight names of external examiners with full particulars of each, competent to evaluate the thesis. The Head of the Department shall review the list and shall forward the same to the Vice-Chancellor for being placed before the Research Board. The Research Board shall consider the list while appointing two examiners out of which at least one shall be outside the state of Rajasthan. Two alternate names shall be given. The Supervisor shall be the third examiner unless he is related to the candidate. In that case the Head of the Department or some other teacher of the department or another examiner will be appointed.

O.214-A. (i) Prior to submission of the Ph.D. thesis, the student shall have to make a pre-Ph.D. presentation in the Department that may be open to all faculty members and research students for getting feedback and comments, which may be suitably incorporated into the draft thesis under the advice of the supervisor.

(ii) Ph.D. candidate shall publish one research paper in a referred Journal before the submission of the thesis for adjudication and produce evidence for the same in the form of acceptance letter or the reprint.

(iii) The candidate shall submit his/her thesis within six months of the application for the appointment of examiners. Only in extraordinary cases may the Vice-Chancellor extend the time.

O.215. The thesis in language subjects shall be written in the language concerned, excepting Sanskrit which may be written in Sanskrit, Hindi or English. The thesis in other subjects in the Faculties of Arts, Education and Social Sciences, Commerce & Management Studies and Law shall be written in English or Hindi. In other Faculties, the thesis shall be written in English. The Research Board may waive the condition regarding the English medium and permit the candidate to write his thesis in Hindi in other faculties also; such permission shall be obtained before the examiners are appointed.

O.215-A. The candidate shall supply 4 printed or typed copies of his/her thesis together with 4 copies of a short abstract in which the objectives and the extent to which these have been achieved along with the main findings shall be included. The candidate shall also be required to submit a soft copy of the thesis and abstract.

O.215-B (i) The candidate shall indicate in the preface to thesis how far it embodies the results of his own research and in what respects his investigations appear to him to advance the knowledge of the subject.

(ii) The candidate shall not submit as his thesis any work which has been accepted or rejected for a degree or diploma in this or any other University but he may incorporate in his thesis the content of any work which he may have previously done on the subject. Provided that in such a case he shall indicate in his preface of the thesis, the extent to which such work previously done has been incorporated.

(iii) The candidate may also submit as subsidiary matter any printed contributions to the advancement of his subject which he may have published independently or conjointly. In the event of his submitting such subsidiary matter he shall be required to state fully his own share in any conjoint work.

(iv) The candidate or his supervisor shall be required to submit a signed declaration that the thesis submitted is not substantially the same as any that has already been submitted for a degree or any other academic qualifications at any University or examining body in India or abroad.

O.215-C. A certificate countersigned by the Head shall be furnished by the Supervisor indicating how far the work of the candidate is his original work.

O.216. Ordinarily three months shall be allowed for evaluating the thesis. If the report of any examiner is not received within a reasonable period, steps may be taken to appoint another examiner.

O.216-A. The examiner shall send the report to the Registrar in a prescribed form together with additional observations such as he deems necessary.

O.216-B. The examiner in his assessment shall be required to express his categorical opinion on the following points :

(a) That the thesis is an original piece of research work and a contribution to knowledge either from the point of the discovery of new facts or the interpretation of fact or both.

(b) That the candidate has given proof of consistent thinking and of critical approach to the problems enunciated by him.

(c) That the thesis is satisfactory so far as its literary presentation is concerned.

O.216-C. The examiner shall make a clear recommendation that:

either (a) the thesis be accepted for the Ph.D. degree;

or (b) the thesis be rejected;

or (c) the candidate be allowed to present his thesis in a revised form.

The report shall include the grounds on which the recommendation is based. The examiner may also indicate questions to be asked from the candidate during the viva-voce test.

O.216-D. If the examiners unanimously recommend award of the degree, the Registrar shall fix a date for the viva-voce test, to be held normally at Jodhpur.

O.216-E. The viva-voce test shall be conducted to assess :

(i) the candidate's acquaintance with the literature on the subject

(ii) whether the thesis is genuinely the work of the candidate and

(iii) Whether the candidate evinces capacity for critical examination and judgment.

O.216-F. The viva-voce test shall be conducted by at least two examiners from a board of three examiners appointed for assessing the thesis, one of whom shall be the Supervisor (internal examiner). In case the Supervisor happens to be a relation of the candidate or outside India, an alternative examiner shall act as one of the examiners. To the viva-voce examination, all members of the Academic Council shall be invited.

O.217. If the majority of the examiners are in favour of allowing the candidate to revise and resubmit the thesis, he/she may be redirected to present his/her thesis in a revised form, not earlier than six months and not later than two years from the date of such decision. The candidate shall be supplied with extracts from the Examiners' reports indicating the lines on which the thesis is to be revised and three copies of the thesis shall be returned to the candidate.

The thesis so resubmitted shall be sent to the same panel of examiners who evaluated the original thesis unless any one of them expresses inability to evaluate the thesis. In that case the thesis shall be sent to another examiner. No candidate shall be allowed to resubmit his thesis more than one.

O 217-A. In case two examiners recommended the award of the Ph.D. degree and the third examiner differs the reports of the examiners with the recommendations and the thesis shall be referred to a fourth examiner without mentioning the names of the examiners who may make a recommendation in the manner specified above; and his recommendation shall be final. In case two examiners do not recommend the award, thesis shall be rejected.

O.218. If the candidate fails to acquit himself satisfactorily in the viva-voce test, the Research Board may reject the thesis or ask the candidate to appear for the viva-voce test again after the expiry of six months.

O.219. After the viva-voce test of the candidate has been held to the satisfaction of examiners, the Registrar shall place all recommendation before the Research Board for its approval which shall be forwarded to the Academic Council for its decision to award the degree.

O.219-A. After approval of the process awarding of degree by the Research Board, the Jai Narain Vyas University, Jodhpur will issue a Provisional Certificate certifying to effect that the Degree has been awarded in accordance with the provisions of the UGC. (Minimum Standards and Procedure for Award of Ph.D. Degree) Regulations, 2009 as amended from time to time.

O.220. On a written request from the candidate or the supervisor copies of reports of the examiners shall be supplied to the candidate/supervisor after the degree has been awarded on the understanding that the report shall not be published or quoted from in any form.

O.220.A. Following the successful completion of the evaluation process and announcements of the award of Ph.D., the university shall submit a soft copy of the Ph.D. thesis to the UGC within a period of thirty days, for posting the same in INFLIBNET accessible to all Institutions/Universities.

O.221. Deleted

O.222. A Research Scholar registered for Ph.D. degree of this University be required to pay the tuition fee and other fees prescribed by the University till he submits his thesis.

Provided that a research scholar in receipt of University Research Scholarship be required to pay all the fees as prescribed under the rules, so long as he draws his scholarship.

*Provided further that a girl candidate registered for Ph.D. degree in various departments of this University be exempted from payment of tuition fee, irrespective of whether or not such a candidate is a recipient of any research scholarship/fellowship.

O.222-A. Deleted

O.223. The remuneration for evaluating the thesis and conducting the viva-voce examination shall be as determined by the Academic Council and notified by the J.N. Vyas University, Jodhpur from time to time.

O.224. There shall be a Research Board in each faculty.

Constitution as proposed for each faculty :

1. The Vice - Chancellor.
2. Dean of the faculty concerned.
3. Heads of the departments.

The Research Board may co-opt one or two experts if deemed necessary for a period of one year, at a time.

Dear University Coordinators of ShodhShuddhi in the State of Rajasthan,

Thank you very much for the subscription of PDS under research as well as academic publications.

Shuddhi (<http://pds.inflibnet.ac.in>) Project to reduce plagiarism in

We are happy to inform that the service was launched by Shri Ramesh Pokhriyal 'Nishank', Hon'ble Minister for Human Resource Development, Govt of India, during the Special Session of Central Advisory Board of Education (CABE) on 21st Sep 2019 at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi in presence of 26 State Ministers, other MHRD and UGC officials. The Launching was also witnessed by Shri Prahlad Singh Patel, MoS (Independent Charge) for Ministry of Culture and Ministry of Tourism, Shri Kiren Rijiju, MoS (Independent Charge) for Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports and MoS, Ministry of Minority Affairs, and Shri Sanjay Dhotre, Minister of State for Human Resource Development

As you are aware, the INFLIBNET Centre, Gandhinagar, an Inter University Centre (IUC) of UGC, is the implementing agency for this service with funding from MHRD. Initially, about 1000 Universities/Institutions (Central Universities; Centrally Funded Technical Institutions (CFTIs); State Public Universities; Deemed Universities; Private Universities; Inter University Centres (IUCs) & Institutes of National Importance) are to be provided with this Service. We have made provision to provide the services to all Faculty Members (FTE) and Research Scholars for using the services.

In this regard, We are seeking your help and assistance to reach to the left out Universities in your esteemed state ie. Rajasthan

Kindly spread the message to all Universities in the state for the execution of PDS at various Universities covered under this project and all Private Universities are also eligible to join under the scheme as well as CFTIs (not Colleges).

Kindly note that there are 83 Universities in Rajasthan as per UGC List. Only 44 Universities have sent the requirements to subscribe PDS and joined ShodhShuddhi. But have not yet joined. The list of Universities which have joined the project is given below:

Looking forward for 100% implementation in the state of Rajasthan at the earliest.
