Chancellor

- (3) The Chancellor may address the Vice-Chancellor with reference to the result of such inspection or enquiry and tender such advice as he may deem fit to officer regarding the action to be taken by the University.
- (4) The Vice-Chancellor shall act in accordance with the advice so tendered and communicate to the Chancellor the action taken in pursuance thereof.
- (5) If the Vice-Chancellor does not, within a reasonable time, take action to the satisfaction of the Chancellor, he may, after considering any explanation furnished or representation made by the Vice-Chancellor, issue such directions as he may deem fit and the University shall be bound to comply with such directions.
- (6) The Chancellor shall have such other powers as may be conferred on him by the Statutes or Ordinances.

Chancellor

11. (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be a whole-time paid officer of the University and shall be appointed by the Chancellor* on the advice of the State Government upon the recommendation of a selection committee consisting of the following, namely :—

- (i) a person nominated by the Syndicate,
- (ii) a person nominated by the Chairman, University Grants Commission, and
- (iii) an educationist nominated by the Chancellor, and the Chancellor shall appoint one of these three persons as the Chairman of the Committee.

* (2) The emoluments and other conditions of service of the Vice-Chancellor shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes and shall not be varied to his disadvantage after his appointment.

- (3) The Vice-Chancellor shall hold office for a period of three years and will be eligible for re-appointment for a second term and such reappointment shall be made upon the recommendation of the selection committee referred to in sub-section (1), provided that no person shall hold the office of Vice-Chancellor for more than two terms.

- (4) The Vice-Chancellor may, at any time, relinquish office by submitting, not less than 60 days in advance of the date on which he wishes to be relieved, his resignation to the Chancellor.

Acted by Jai Narain Vyas University, Jodhpur (Amendment) Ordinance No. 4 of 1974 with effect from 30-7-74. Confirmed by section 2 of Jai Narain Vyas University, Jodhpur (Amendment) Act 1974 (Act No. 6 of 1974) the following provision in the Act of 1962 :

"A vacancy is filled under sub-section (1), the Registrar shall carry on the current duties of the office of the Vice-Chancellor, but such temporary arrangement shall not extend beyond a maximum period of six months, and in Rajasthan Gazette Extraordinary, Part IV B, dated 31 January 1974.

- (5) Such resignation shall take effect from the date determined by the Chancellor and conveyed to the Vice-Chancellor.

* (6) When a permanent vacancy in the office of the Vice-Chancellor occurs by reason of his death, resignation, removal or the expiry of his term of office, it shall be filled by the Chancellor in accordance with sub-section (1) and for so long as it not so filled, stop-gap arrangement shall be made by him under and in accordance with sub-section (7).

* (7) When a temporary vacancy in the office of the Vice-Chancellor occurs by reason of leave, suspension or otherwise or when a stop-gap arrangement is necessary under sub-section (6), the Registrar shall forthwith report the matter to the Chancellor who shall make, on the advice of the State Government, such arrangement for the carrying on of the functions of the office of the Vice-Chancellor as he deems fit.

12. (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be the principal executive and academic officer of the University, and shall, in the absence of the Chancellor, preside at meetings of the Senate and at any convocation of the University. He shall be an ex-officio member and Chairman of the Syndicate and the Academic Council. He shall have the right to speak in, and to take part in the proceedings of, the meetings of any other authority or body of the University but shall not, merely by virtue of this sub-section, be entitled to vote thereat.

- (2) It shall be the duty of the Vice-Chancellor to ensure the faithful observance of the provisions of this Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances and he shall, without prejudice to the powers of the Chancellor, possess all such powers as may be necessary in that behalf.

- (3) The Vice-Chancellor shall have power to convene meetings of the Syndicate, the Senate and the Academic Council:

Provided that he may delegate this power to any other officer of the University.

- (4) The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise general control over the affairs of the University and shall be responsible for the due maintenance of discipline therein.

- (5) In any emergency, when, in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor, immediate action is required, the Vice-Chancellor shall take such action as he may deem necessary and shall at the earliest opportunity report the action taken to the officer, authority, or body who or which in the ordinary course would have dealt with the matter, but nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to empower the Vice-Chancellor to incur any expenditure not duly authorized and provided for in the budget.

- (6) Where any action taken by the Vice-Chancellor under sub-section (5) affects any person in the service of the University to his disadvantage, such person may prefer an appeal to the Syndicate within fifteen days from the date on which the action so taken is communicated to him :

Provided that the Syndicate may entertain an appeal under this sub-section after the expiry of the period of limitation prescribed by the same, if it is satisfied that there were sufficient grounds for the applicant being unable to file the appeal within such period.

- (7) Subject to the provisions contained in sub-sections (5) and (6), the Vice-Chancellor shall give effect to the orders of the Syndicate regarding the appointment, suspension, removal or dismissal of officers and teachers of the University.

*(8) Without prejudice to the powers of the Chancellor under sub-section (2) of section 10, the Vice-Chancellor shall have, for good and sufficient cause, power to make an enquiry himself or to cause it to be made, by such officer or officers of the University as he may direct, against a teacher ; and

- (9) The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise such other powers as may be prescribed by the Statutes and the Ordinances.

Other officers

13. The mode of appointment and the functions of the officers of the University other than the Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor, in so far as they are not provided for in this Act, shall be prescribed by the Statutes and Ordinances.

- (m) all other matters which by this Act are required to be, or may be, provided for by the Statutes.

22. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Senate may, from time to time, make new or additional Statutes and amend or repeal existing Statutes in the manner hereafter in this section provided.

(2) The Syndicate may propose to the Senate draft Statutes for acceptance and promulgation by the Senate, and such draft Statutes shall be considered by the Senate at its next meeting.

(3) The Senate may approve any such draft Statute as is referred to in sub-section (2) or reject it or return it to the Syndicate for reconsideration, either in whole or in part, together with any amendments which the Senate may suggest :

Provided that the Syndicate shall not propose the draft of any Statute or any amendment of a Statute affecting the status, powers or constitution of any existing authority of the University until such authority has been given an opportunity of expressing its opinion upon the proposals, and any opinion so expressed shall be in writing and shall be considered by the Senate.

(4) Any member of the Senate may propose to the Senate the draft of any Statute and the Senate may either reject the proposal or refer the same for consideration to the Syndicate, which may either reject the proposal or submit the draft Statute to the Senate in such form as the Syndicate may approve, and the provisions of this section shall apply in the case of any draft Statute so submitted as they apply in the case of a draft Statute proposed to the Senate by the Syndicate.

(5) Every new Statute or additional Statute or any amendment or repeal of a Statute shall require the previous approval of the Chancellor, who may sanction promulgation or disallow or remit it for further consideration.

23. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, the Ordinances may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

- (a) the admission of students to the University and their enrolment as such;
- (b) the courses of study to be laid down for all degrees, diplomas and certificates of the University;

- (c) the degrees, diplomas, certificates and other academic distinctions to be awarded by the University, the qualifications for the same, and the measures to be adopted for granting and obtaining of the same respectively;

- (e) the conditions of the award of fellowships, scholarships, studentships, exhibitions, medals and prizes;
- (f) the conduct of examinations, including the term of office and manner of appointment and the duties of examining bodies, examiners and moderators;
- (g) the maintenance of discipline among the students of the University;
- (h) the conditions of residence of students at the University;
- (i) the special arrangements, if any, which may be made for the residence, discipline, and teaching of women students, and the prescribing for them of special courses of study;
- (j) the emoluments and the terms and conditions of service of teachers of the University and other staff of the University;
- (k) the management of colleges, institutions, hostels and halls founded, maintained, or recognized by the University;
- (l) the supervision and inspection of colleges institutions, hostels and halls admitted to the privileges of the University; and
- (m) all other matters which by this Act or the Statutes are to be, or may be, provided for by the Ordinances.

Ordinances how made

24. (1) *Ordinances shall be made by the Syndicate, but no such Ordinance shall take effect until it has been approved by the Chancellor :

Provided that no Ordinance concerning admission to the University, or to its examinations, courses of study, schemes of examination, attendance and appointment of examiners shall be considered unless a draft of such Ordinance has been proposed by the Academic Council.

- (2) The Syndicate shall not have power to amend any draft proposed by the Academic Council under the provisions of sub-section (1), but may reject it or return it to the Academic Council for reconsideration, either in whole or in part, together with any amendments which the Syndicate may suggest :

Provided that no Ordinance affecting the income or expenditure of the University shall be made, amended, repealed or added to, unless prior consent in writing of the State Government to the draft of such Ordinance has been obtained.

- (3) All Ordinances made by the Syndicate shall be submitted to the Senate, and shall be considered by the Senate at its next meeting. The Senate shall have power, by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members voting, to cancel any Ordinance made by the Syndicate and such Ordinance shall from the date of such resolution be void.

25. (1) The authorities of the University may make Regulations consistent with this Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances—

- (a) laying down the procedure to be observed at their meetings and the number of members required to form a quorum;
- (b) providing for all matters which by this Act, the Statutes, or the Ordinances are to be prescribed by the Regulations; and
- (c) providing for all other matters solely concerning such authorities or committees appointed by them, and not provided for by this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances.

(2) Every authority of the University shall make Regulations providing for the giving of notice to the members of such authority of the dates of meetings and of the business to be considered at such meetings, and for the keeping of a record of the proceedings of meetings.

- (3) The Syndicate may direct the amendments, in such manner as it may specify, of any Regulation made under this section or the annulment of any Regulations made thereunder :

Provided that any authority or Board of the University which is dissatisfied with any such directions may appeal to the Senate, whose decision in the matter shall be final.

26. Resident students shall reside in the accommodation provided by the University or approved by the Vice-Chancellor, subject to the conditions prescribed.

27. (1) The hostels or halls shall be such as may be maintained by the University or approved and recognized by the Syndicate on such general or special conditions as may be prescribed by the Ordinances.

(2) The wardens and superintending staff of the hostels and the halls shall be appointed in the manner prescribed by the Ordinances.

- (3) The conditions of residence in the hostels and halls shall be prescribed by the Ordinances and every hostel or hall shall be subject to inspection by any member of the Residence, Health and Discipline Board authorized in this behalf by the Board, and by any officer of the University or other person authorized in this behalf by the Syndicate.

(4) The Syndicate shall have power to suspend or withdraw the recognition of any hostel or hall which is not conducted in accordance with the conditions prescribed by the Ordinances.

+27-A. (1) An affiliated college or a recognized institution or a University department may be conferred the autonomous status by the University in the matter of admission of students, prescribing the courses of studies, imparting instructions and training, holding or examinations and the power to make necessary rules for the purposes.

(2) The Syndicate shall for the purpose of satisfying itself about the standards of education in such a college, institution or department, may direct an enquiry to be made in the prescribed manner by a standing committee consisting of such persons as are deemed fit.

(3) On receipt of the report of the said committee and the recommendations of the Academic Council thereon, the Syndicate on being satisfied, shall refer the matter to the University Grants Commission and the State Government to obtain their concurrence.

(4) On receipt of such concurrence, the University shall confer the autonomous status on the college, the institution or the department, as the case may be.

(5) The status of autonomy may be granted initially for a period of five years subject to review by an expert committee to be constituted for this purpose.

The committee shall comprise the following namely :—

- (a) one nominee of the University;
- (b) one nominee of the State Government;
- (c) one nominee of the University Grants Commission;
- (d) one Principal of an autonomous college to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor; and
- (e) an officer of the University.

(6) The committee shall submit its report to the Syndicate for further action.

(7) The University shall continue to exercise general supervision over such college, institution or department and to confer degrees on the students of such college, institution or department.

(8) The autonomous college, institution or department shall appoint such committees as may be prescribed for the proper management relating to academic, financial and administrative affairs.

(9) Every autonomous college, institution or department shall furnish such reports, returns and other informations as the Syndicate may require from time to time to judge efficiency.

(10) The Syndicate shall cause every autonomous college, institution or department to be inspected from time to time.

27 B. (1) The conferment of autonomous status may be withdrawn by the University if the college, institution or department has failed to observe any condition of its conferment or the efficiency thereof has so deteriorated that in the interest of education it is necessary to do so.

(2) Before an order under sub-section (1) is made, the Syndicate shall, by one month's notice in writing, call upon the college, institution or department to show cause why such an order should not be made.

(3) On receipt of the explanation, if any, made by the college, institution or department in reply to the notice, the Senate shall, after consulting the Syndicate and the Academic Council and the University Grants Commission report the matter to the State Government.

(4) The State Government shall, after such further enquiry, if any, as may be deemed fit, record its opinion in the matter and convey its decision to the University and the University shall thereupon make such order as it deems fit.

(5) Where in the case of an autonomous college, institution or department, the autonomous status conferred under section 27-A is withdrawn by an order made under sub-section (4), such college, institution or department, as the case may be, shall cease to have an autonomous status from the date specified in the order.

28. (1) The University shall establish a fund to be called the University Fund.

(2) The following shall form part of, or be paid into, the University Fund :—

- (a) any contribution or grant by Government,
- (b) the income of the University from all sources, including income from fees and charges,
- (c) Trusts, bequests, donations, endowments and other grants, if any, and
- (d) Such other moneys as may be credited to the University Fund or may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) The matters to which the University Fund shall be applied and appropriated shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

(4) All expenses incurred under, and in pursuance of, any provision contained in this Act shall be met out of the University Fund.

29. The annual report of the University shall be prepared under the direction of the Syndicate, and shall be submitted to the Senate on or before such date as may be prescribed by the Statutes, and shall be considered by the Senate at its annual meeting. The Senate may pass resolutions thereon which shall be communicated to the Syndicate.

30. (1) The annual accounts and balance sheets of the University shall be prepared under the directions of the Syndicate, and all moneys accruing to, or received by, the University, from whatsoever source drawn, and all amounts disbursed or paid shall be entered in the accounts.

(2) The accounts shall be audited in such manner as may, after consultation with the State Government, be prescribed by Statutes, by such auditors of high standing as the State Government may appoint in this behalf, and the cost of such audit shall be a charge on the University Fund.

(3) The accounts, when audited, shall be printed in such form as may, after consultation with the State Government, be prescribed by Statutes and the copies of such accounts together with the copies of audit report shall be submitted by the Syndicate to the Senate and the State Government.

(4) It shall be lawful for the State Government to require any person who is found to have spent or misappropriated or authorized the expenditure of funds in excess of amounts provided in the budget or in violation of any provision of this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances, to reimburse the amount so spent or misappropriated and the State Government may take all such steps as may be deemed necessary to effect the recovery thereof and steps so taken shall be without prejudice to any other action which may be taken under any other law :

Provided that the State Government shall, before requiring any person as aforesaid, give him a reasonable opportunity of making a representation.

(5) The Syndicate shall also prepare, before such date as may be prescribed by the Statutes, a statement of the financial estimates for the ensuing year.

(6) The annual accounts and the financial estimates shall be considered by the Senate at its annual meetings and the Senate may pass resolutions with reference thereto and communicate the same to the Syndicate.

31. If any question arises whether any person has been duly elected, or appointed as, or is entitled to be, a member of any authority or other body of the University, the matter shall be referred to the Chancellor, whose decision thereon shall be final.

32. Where any authority of the University is given power by this Act or the Statutes to appoint committees, such committee shall, save as otherwise provided, consist of members of the authority concerned and of such other persons (if any) as the authority in each case may think fit.

33. All casual vacancies among the members (other than ex-officio members) of any authority or other body of the University shall be filled, as soon as conveniently may be, by the person or body who appointed, elected or co-opted the member whose place has become vacant; and the person appointed, elected or co-opted to a casual vacancy shall be a member of such authority or body for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

34. No act or proceeding of any authority or other body of the University shall be invalidated merely by reason of the existence of vacancy or vacancies among its members.

35. (1) Every salaried officer and teacher of the University shall be appointed by means of a written contract. The contract shall be lodged with the Registrar of the University, and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the officer or teacher concerned.

(2) Any member of the public services in India who it is proposed to appoint to a post in the University shall, subject to the approval of such appointment by the Government (concerned) have the option :—

(i) of having his services lent to the University for a specified period and remaining liable to revert to, or to be recalled by, the Government concerned; or

(ii) of resigning Government service on entering the service of the University.

(3) Any dispute arising out of a contract between the University and any officer or teacher of the University shall, on the request of such officer or teacher, be referred to a tribunal of arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the Syndicate, one member nominated by the officer or teacher concerned and considered acceptable by the Vice-Chancellor, and an umpire appointed by the Chancellor. The decision of the tribunal shall be final and no suit shall lie in any civil court in respect of the matters decided by the tribunal. Every such request shall be deemed to be a submission to arbitration within the meaning of the Arbitration Act, 1940 (Central Act X of 1940) and all the provisions of that Act, with the exception of section 2 thereof, shall apply accordingly.

36. (1) The University shall constitute, for the benefit of its officers, teachers, clerical staff and servants, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Statutes, such pension, insurance or provident fund as it may deem fit.

- (2) Where any such pension, insurance or provident fund has been so constituted or where any such pension, insurance or provident fund has been constituted by a college under rules which have been approved by the State Government, the State Government may declare that the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (Central Act XIX of 1925), shall apply to such fund, as if it were a Government provident fund.

Appointment of Officers on deputation

†14. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or the relevant law, if the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned is of the opinion that—

- (a) efficient and proper management of the administrative affairs of the University so requires; or
- (b) for any good reason, the University is not able easily to fill up a vacancy in the post of Registrar in that University in accordance with the provisions contained and the procedure provided elsewhere in this Act and the relevant law;

he may make a request in writing to the State Government to place the services of an officer of the State Government having administrative experience in the affairs of the State of at least five years, at the disposal of that University for appointing him to the post of Registrar of the University for a period not exceeding three years in the first instance and the State Government may, after considering such a request, place the service of such an officer of the State Government at the disposal of the University for such appointment and thereupon the authority competent in the University concerned to make appointment to the post of Registrar shall appoint such officer of the State Government as Registrar of that University for a period not exceeding the period as aforesaid.

- (2) An appointment of an officer of the State Government as Registrar of any University shall for all purposes be valid and shall not be liable to be questioned on the ground that the appointment has been made in contravention of any other provision of this Act or of the relevant law whether such contravention relates to qualifications or experience laid down about eligibility for appointment to the post of Registrar in that University or to the procedure provided for selecting or appointing a person to such post in this Act or in such law or both.

- (3) If a further request in writing of the nature referred to in sub-section (1) is made by the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned, the term of deputation of the officer of the State Government appointed as Registrar of that University under the said sub-section may be agreed to by the State Government to be extended for a further period not exceeding one year.

- (4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the relevant law or elsewhere in this Act,—

- (a) the Finance Officer (by whatever name designated in a University) to be appointed as such in the University concerned shall; and
- (b) an Engineer, a Security Officer, an Officer on Special Duty, an Estate Officer or such other officer or officers (by whatever name designated in a University) as may be specified in the rules, may, be an officer of the State Government sent on deputation for that purpose to such University.]

5. (1) For every selection of a teacher or of an officer in a University, there shall be constituted a Committee consisting of the following :

- (i) Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned, who shall be the Chairman of the Committee;
- (ii) an eminent educationist to be nominated by the Chancellor for a period of one year;
- (iii) an eminent educationist to be nominated by the State Government for a period of one year;
- (iv) one member of the Syndicate to be nominated by the State Government for a period of one year; and
- (v) such other persons as members specified in column 2 of the First Schedule for the selection of the teachers and officers mentioned in column 1 thereof :

Provided that where the appointment of a teacher is to be made in the Faculty of Agriculture in any University or in any University-College imparting instruction or guiding research in agriculture there shall be one more expert to be nominated by the Syndicate out of a panel of names recommended by the Indian Council of Agriculture Research :

Provided further that the Selection Committee for teaching posts in the faculty of engineering and technology shall also include an expert to be nominated by the Syndicate out of a panel of names recommended by All India Council of Technical Education.

- (2) The eminent educationists nominated under clause (ii) and clause (iii) of sub-section (i) and the member of the Syndicate mentioned under clause (iv) of the said sub-section shall be members of every selection committee constituted during the course of one year from the date of his nomination;

Provided that the member for a Selection Committee nominated under clauses (ii), (iii) or (iv) of sub-section (1) shall continue to be the member of every Selection Committee even after the expiry of his term until a fresh nomination is made by the Chancellor or, as the case may be, by the State Government subject, however, that fresh nomination of such member for Selection Committee shall be made within a period not exceeding three months from the date of expiry of his term.

- (3) No person shall be eligible to be nominated as an expert on any selection committee in any one year if he has been a member of any two selection committees during the course of the same year.

Procedure of Selection Committee

6. (1) The quorum required for the meeting of a selection committee constituted under section 5 shall not be less than five out of which at least two shall be the experts, if the selection to be made is for the post of a Professor or Reader and at least one shall be expert if the selection is to be made for the post of a Lecturer or any other post of a teacher equivalent thereto. The quorum required for the meeting of a selection committee for selection of non-teaching posts shall be not less than one half of the number of the members of the selection committee, out of which at least one shall be an expert.

- (2) The selection committee shall make its recommendations to the Syndicate. If the Syndicate disapproves the recommendations of the selection committee, the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned shall submit such recommendations alongwith reasons for disapproval given by the Syndicate to the Chancellor for his consideration and the decision of the Chancellor thereon shall be final.

- (3) Every Selection Committee shall be bound by the qualifications laid down in the relevant law of the University concerned for the post of a teacher or as the case may be, of an officer.

- (4) The Selection Committee, while making its recommendations to the Syndicate under sub-section (2), shall prepare a list of candidates selected by it in order of merit and shall further prepare a reserve list in the same order and to the extent of 50% of the vacancies in the posts of teachers or officers for which the selection committee was constituted under sub-section (1) of section 5 and shall forward the main list and the reserve list alongwith its recommendations to the Syndicate.

7. A person shall be disqualified from sitting as a member of any selection committee and from taking part in any selection under this Act if he is personally interested in a candidate seeking selection to the post of a teacher or an officer in any University.

Disqualification for sitting as member in Selection Committees

8. Subject to the provisions as to the requirement of quorum, no act, proceeding or selection made by a Selection Committee shall be questioned on the ground of the existence of any vacancy or defect in the nomination of a member of such Committee.

9. (1) The Chancellor may for administrative reasons, transfer an officer of a University to any other University.

- (2) Such officer upon his transfer shall carry with him to the University which he is transferred such other conditions of service as may be specified in the order of transfer.

10. Notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant law, as from the date of commencement of the Rajasthan Universities' Teachers and Officers (Special Conditions of Service) (Amendment) Act, 1984, there shall be reserved by the University concerned, 16% posts for Scheduled Castes and 12% posts for Scheduled Tribes candidates for appointment to the posts of teachers and officers to be appointed in the University in pursuance of every selection made under this Act :

Provided that if, in any selection, persons belonging to such castes or such tribes are not appointed in such percentage as is provided for this section, whether by reason of their not having applied for selection or by reason of their not having been selected, the number of posts by which such percentage falls short shall be carried forward upto a maximum period of three years.

- 10-A. Reservation of posts for Backward Classes.— Notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant law, as from the date of commencement of the Rajasthan Universities Teachers and Officers (Selection for Appointment) (Amendment) Act, 1995 (Act No. 24 of 1995), there shall be reserved in the University concerned, twenty one per cent posts for Backward Classes for appointment to the posts of teachers and officers to be appointed in the University in pursuance of every selection made under this Act :

Provided that in the event of non-availability of the eligible and suitable candidates from amongst Backward Classes in a particular year, the vacancies so reserved for them shall be filled in accordance with the normal procedure.¹

11. Transitional Provisions relating to ex-cadre Promotion Scheme.— Personal promotion granted against ex-cadre posts under the erstwhile scheme of personal promotion, shall be entirely personal to the teacher concerned and the ex-cadre post to which such personal promotion was granted shall cease to exist as soon as the teacher promoted to such a post ceases to hold that post permanently for any reason whatsoever, and on his ceasing to hold such ex-cadre post, the original post from which such personal promotion was made of a teacher shall revive.²

(xi) "Vice-Chancellor" means the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned, and includes any person who for the time being performs the functions of the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned according to the relevant law.

(2) All other expressions used but not defined in this Act shall have the meaning respectively assigned to them under the relevant law.

3. Restrictions on appointments of teachers and officers :

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant law, as from the commencement of this Act, no teacher and no officer in any University in Rajasthan shall be appointed except on the recommendations of the Selection Committee constituted under section 4.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (3), every appointment of a teacher or of an officer in any University made in contravention of sub-section (1) shall be null and void.

(3) Nothing herein contained shall apply to the appointment of a teacher or an officer as a stop-gap arrangement for a period not exceeding six months or to the appointment of a part-time teacher.

4. Constitution of Selection Committee :

(1) For every selection of a teacher or of an officer in a University, there shall be constituted a committee consisting of the following :

- (i) Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned who shall be the Chairman of the committee;
- (ii) an eminent educationist to be nominated by the Chancellor for a period of one year;
- (iii) the Education Commissioner, Rajasthan or the Director of College Education, Rajasthan when nominated by the Education Commissioner, Rajasthan; and
- (iv) such other persons as members specified in column 2 of the Schedule for the selection of the teachers and officers mentioned in column 1 thereof.

(2) For purposes of this selection, the eminent educationist to be nominated by the Chancellor shall be chosen from out of panel of names drawn up by a committee consisting of the Chancellor's nominee who will be the Chairman of the committee, a nominee of the Chairman, University Grants Commission, and a nominee of the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned.

(3) The person nominated by the Chancellor under sub-section (2) shall be the member of every selection committee constituted during the course of one year from the date of his nomination.

Provided that the Chancellor may for good reasons cancel the nomination at any time before the expiry of the period of his nomination.

(4) No person shall be eligible to be nominated as an expert on any selection committee in any one year if he has been a member of any two selection committees during the course of the same year.

(5) No person who has been nominated as an expert on any selection committee under this section shall be eligible to participate in the selection of a teacher if during the course of two years preceding the date of selection, either any of the candidates for selection has been the student of the expert or the expert has examined the thesis of such candidate.

5. Procedure of selection committees :

- (1) The procedure to be followed by a selection committee in making its recommendation and the criteria to be applied in making the selection as also the quorum required for its meeting shall be prescribed.
- (2) Every selection committee shall be bound by the qualifications laid down in the relevant law for the post of a teacher or of an officer.

6. Disqualification for appointment on the committee :

- (1) A person shall be disqualified for being or for continuing as a member of any selection committee or for taking part in any selection under this Act if he—
 - (a) is personally interested in a candidate for any selection; or
 - (b) is of unsound mind; or

 - (d) has by [reason] of health or any other bodily infirmity, become incapable of acting; or
 - (e) is convicted of an offence of moral turpitude or is arrested for an offence against the security of State; or
 - (f) has so abused his position as a member of any selection committee as to render his continuance on the selection committee detrimental to the interest of the University or of the general public.

7. Vacancy or defect not to invalidate selections :

Subject to the provisions as to the requirement of quorum, no act, proceeding or selection made by a selection committee shall be questioned on the ground of the existence of any vacancy or defect in the nomination of a member of such committee.

8. Transfer of officers :

- (1) The Chancellor may for administrative reasons, transfer an officer of a University to any other University.
- (2) Such officer upon his transfer shall carry with him to the University to which he is transferred such other conditions of service as may be specified in the order of transfer.

9. Act to have over-riding effect :

- (1) The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant law.
- (2) So much of the relevant law as provides for the matters covered by this Act shall, as from the commencement of this Act, cease to have effect as respects those matters.

10. Power to make rules :

- (1) The State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act, and, in particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for any matter which is by this Act, required to be prescribed or for which rules may be made under this Act.
- (2) All rules made under this Act, shall be laid for not less than thirty days before the State Legislature as soon as possible after they are made and shall be subject to such rescission or modification as the State Legislature may make, during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

11. Repeal and savings :

- (1) The Rajasthan Universities' Teachers and Officers (Special Conditions of Service) Ordinance 1974 (Ordinance No. 17 of 1974) promulgated on the 21st day of July, 1974 is hereby repealed.
- (2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act as if this Act has commenced on the 21st day of July 1974.

Explanation.—The expression "appointed" in sub-section (1) shall mean a teacher or an officer in any University initially appointed as such teacher or officer or not appointed by way of promotion."

7. Inversion of new section 4, Rajasthan Act 18 of 1974.— After section 3 of the principal Act as so amended, the following new section shall be and shall be deemed always to have been inserted, namely :—

"4. Appointment of officers on deputation.— (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or the relevant law, if the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned is of the opinion that,—

(a) efficient and proper management of the administrative affairs of the University so requires; or

(b) for any good reason, the University is not able easily to fill up a vacancy in the post of Registrar in that University in accordance with the provisions contained and the procedure provided elsewhere in this Act and the relevant law; or

(c) a suitable person is not available for appointment to the post of Registrar in that University as a measure of stop-gap arrangement under sub-section (3) of section 3,

he may make a request in writing to the State Government to place the services of an officer of the State Government having administrative experience in the affairs of the State of at least five years, at the disposal of that University for appointing him to the post of Registrar of the University for a period not exceeding 3 years in the first instance and the State Government may, after considering such a request, place the service of such an officer of the State Government at the disposal of the University for such appointment and thereupon the authority competent in the University concerned to make appointment to the post of Registrar shall appoint such officer of the State Government as Registrar of that University for a period not exceeding the period as aforesaid.

(2) An appointment of an officer of the State Government as Registrar of any University shall for all purposes be valid and shall not be liable to be questioned on the ground that the appointment has been made in contravention of any other provision of this Act or of the relevant law whether such contravention relates to qualifications or experience laid down about eligibility for appointment to the post of Registrar in that University or to the procedure provided for selecting or appointing a person to such post in this Act or in such law or both.

(3) If a further request in writing of the nature referred to in sub-section (1) is made by the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned, the term of deputation of the officer of the State Government appointed as Registrar of that University under the said sub-section may be agreed to by the State Government to be extended for a further period not exceeding one year.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the relevant law or elsewhere in this Act, the Finance Officer (by whatever name designated in a University) to be appointed as such in the University concerned shall be an officer of the State Government sent on deputation for that purpose to such University.

8. Amendment of section 4, Rajasthan Act 18 of 1974.— The existing section 4 of the principal Act shall be re-numbered as section 5 thereof and in section 5 as so re-numbered, in sub-section (2), the punctuation mark full-stop appearing at the end of the said sub-section shall be substituted by the punctuation mark colon and after sub-section (2) as so amended, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely :—

“(ii), (iii) or (iv) of sub-section (1) shall continue to be the member of every Selection Committee even after the expiry of his term until a fresh nomination is made by the Chancellor or, as the case may be, by the State Government subject, however, that fresh nomination of such member for Selection Committee shall be made within a period not exceeding three months from the date of expiry of his term.”

9. Amendment of section 5, Rajasthan Act 18 of 1974.— The existing section 5 of the principal Act shall be re-numbered as section 6 thereof and in section 6 as so re-numbered,—

- (a) in sub-section (1), for the figure “4”, the figure “5” and for the word “six”, the word “five” shall be substituted; and
- (b) after sub-section (3), the following new sub-section shall be inserted, namely :—

“(4) The Selection Committee, while making its recommendations to the Syndicate under sub-section (2), shall prepare list of candidates selected by it in order of merit and shall further prepare a reserve list in the same order and to the extent of 50% of the vacancies in the posts of teachers or officers for which the selection committee was constituted under sub-section (1) of section 5 and shall forward the main list and the reserve list alongwith its recommendations to the Syndicate.”

10. Re-numbering of sections 6, 7 and 8, Rajasthan Act 18 of 1974.— The existing sections 6, 7 and 8 of the principal Act shall, respectively, be re-numbered as sections 7, 8 and 9 thereof.

11. Insertion of new sections 10 and 11, Rajasthan Act 18 of 1974.— After section 9 of the principal Act as so re-numbered, the following new sections shall be added, namely :—

“10. Reservation of posts.— Notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant law, as from the date of commencement of the Rajasthan Universities' Teachers and Officers (Special Conditions of Service) (Amendment) Ordinance, 1983, there shall be reserved by the University concerned, 16% posts for Scheduled Castes and 12% posts for Scheduled Tribes candidates for appointment to the posts of teachers and officers to be appointed in the University in pursuance of every selection made under this Act : Provided that if, in any selection, persons belonging to such castes or such tribes are not appointed in such percentage as is provided for in this section, whether by reason of their not having applied for selection or by reason of their not having been selected, the number of posts by which such percentage falls short shall be carried forward upto a maximum period of three years.

11. Personal promotion against ex-cadre posts.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant law or in this Act, the State Government may in order to provide promotional opportunities to stagnant deserving teachers, create ex-cadre posts of Professors or Readers in each faculty of a University to the extent of one-third of eligible persons as on 1st January of each year, subject, however, to the condition that the total number of ex-cadre posts created of Readers or Professors shall at no point of time exceed one-third of the total number of posts of Lecturer or Reader, as the case may be, in any faculty at such time.

(2) A Lecturer or a Reader in a University shall be entitled to only one personal promotion under this section during his service in any of the Universities subject to his being eligible for such promotion under this section.

(3) When ex-cadre posts are created by the State Government in a faculty of a University, the distribution of such posts within the various departments of the University in a particular faculty would be made by a committee consisting of the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned, Deans of faculties and the Education Secretary.

(4) The ex-cadre posts of Professors created in a year shall be filled in by personal promotion on the basis of merit alone from amongst Readers who,—

- (a) have been regularly selected to the post of a Reader;
- (b) have put in continuous twelve years service as Reader after regular selection as on 1st January of the year in which such promotion is to be considered; and
- (c) possess the qualifications laid down in the relevant law of the University concerned for appointment to the post of Professor.

(5) The ex-cadre posts of Readers shall be filled in by personal promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit from amongst Lecturers who,—

- (a) have been regularly selected on the post of the Lecturer;
- (b) have put in continuous eighteen years service as Lecturer after regular selection as on 1st January of the year in which such personal promotion is to be considered; and
- (c) possess the qualifications laid down in the relevant law of the University concerned for appointment to the post of Reader.

Explanation.— The expression “service” in sub-section (4) and sub-section (5) shall include service rendered as a Lecturer in any college established or run by the State Government after regular selection as such Lecturer.

(6) For the purpose of consideration for personal promotion to any of the category of ex-cadre posts referred to in sub-section (4) and sub-section (5), the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned shall prepare separate eligibility lists of Lecturers and Readers who are eligible under this section to be considered for such promotion on ex-cadre posts of Professors or Readers allocated to a department of a faculty by the committee referred to in sub-section (3).

(7) For every selection of a Lecturer or a Reader in a University for personal promotion to an ex-cadre post in accordance with and under this section, there shall be constituted a committee consisting of members specified in column 2 of Second Schedule for the selection to the ex-cadre posts mentioned in column 1 thereof.

(8) The committee referred to in sub-section (7) shall consider the case of all eligible Lecturers and Readers for personal promotion to the ex-cadre posts of Reader or, as the case may be, of Professor of a department of a faculty of the University to which such post is allocated under this section and in doing so, shall take into account the service record, the Annual Performance Appraisal Reports (including Special Performance Appraisal Report), the academic work done, disciplinary proceedings initiated and penalties, if any, imposed on such Lecturers or, as the case may be, such Readers. The committee may also take personal interview of such eligible Lecturers and Readers to test their suitability. It shall prepare a list containing name of Lecturers and Readers found suitable for personal promotion to such ex-cadre posts in order of preference.

Explanation I. The expression “academic work” in this sub-section shall mean and include guidance of research work, publication of books and research papers in standard journals.

II. Adverse report in Annual Performance Appraisal Reports or penalties imposed in disciplinary proceedings pertaining to a period beyond five years from the year of selection shall not be considered by the committee.

(9) The committee shall send the list referred to in sub-section (8) with its recommendations to the Syndicate of the University concerned. If the Syndicate disapproves the recommendations of the Selection Committee, the Vice-Chancellor of the University concerned shall submit such list and recommendations alongwith reasons for disapproval given by the Syndicate to the Chancellor of the University concerned for his consideration and the decision of the Chancellor thereon shall be final.

(10) Personal promotion to an ex-cadre post shall be made by the authority competent to make appointment of Readers or, as the case may be, of Professors in the University concerned according to the approval to the Syndicate of the University concerned and in case of disapproval of the recommendations of the Selection Committee by the Syndicate, according to the decision of the Chancellor.

(11) The personal promotions granted against ex-cadre posts under this section shall be entirely personal to the teacher concerned and ex-cadre post to which such personal promotion is granted shall cease to exist as soon as the teacher promoted to such a post ceases to hold that post permanently for any reason and on ceasing of such ex-cadre post, the original post from which such personal promotion was made of a teacher, shall revive.

(12) The inter-se seniority of Readers and Professors regularly appointed in a University under the relevant law or in pursuance of the selection made under section 5 and section 6 and of all those who are granted personal promotion to an ex-cadre post after the date of commencement of the Rajasthan Universities' Teachers and Officers (Special Conditions of Service) (Amendment) Ordinance, 1983 shall be regulated by the date of their regular appointment or personal promotion to an ex-cadre post, as the case may be.

(13) The State Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this section."

12. Re-numbering of sections 9, 10 and 11, Rajasthan Act 18 of 1974.— The existing sections 9, 10, and 11 of the principal Act shall respectively be re-numbered as sections 12, 13 and 14 thereof.

13. Amendment of re-numbered section 13, Rajasthan Act 18 of 1974.— For section 13 of the principal Act as so re-numbered, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"13. Power to make rules.— The Syndicate of the University concerned may make rules for carrying out the provisions of this Act except the provisions contained in section 11."

14. Amendment of the Schedule to Rajasthan Act 18 of 1974.— In the Schedule to the principal Act,—

- (a) for the word "SCHEDULE", the words "FIRST SCHEDULE" shall be substituted;
- (b) for the expression "Three experts" appearing in column 2 against categories of Teachers specified at Serial Nos. 1 and 2 of column 1, the expression "Two experts" shall be substituted;
- and
- (c) in Explanation II, for the word "six", the word "twelve" shall be substituted.

15. Insertion of Second Schedule to Rajasthan Act 18 of 1974.— After the existing Schedule as so amended, the following new Schedule shall be added, namely:—

"SECOND SCHEDULE"

10. Staff of the Commission. — Subject to such rules as may be made by the Central Government in this behalf, the Commission may appoint a Secretary and such other employees as it may think necessary for the efficient performance of its functions under this Act and the terms and conditions of service of the employees shall be such as may be determined by the Commission.

11. Authentication of orders and other instruments of the Commission. — All orders and decisions of the commission shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman or any other member authorized by the Commission in this behalf and all other instruments issued by the Commission shall be authenticated by the signature of the Secretary or any other officer of the Commission authorized in like manner in this behalf.

CHAPTER III

POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE COMMISSION

12. Functions of the Commission. — It shall be the general duty of the Commission to take, in consultation with the Universities or other bodies concerned, all such steps as it may think fit for the promotion and co-ordination of University education and for the determination and maintenance of standards of teaching, examination and research in Universities, and for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, the Commission may—

- inquire into the financial needs of Universities;
- allocate and disburse, out of the Fund of the Commission, grants to Universities established or incorporated by or under a Central Act for the maintenance and development of such Universities or for any other general or specified purpose;
- allocate and disburse, out of the Fund of the Commission, such grants to other Universities as it may deem [necessary or appropriate for the development of such Universities or for the maintenance, or development, or both, of any specified activities of such Universities] or for any other general or specified purpose :

Provided that in making any grant to any such University, the Commission shall give due consideration to the development of the University concerned, its financial needs, the standards attained by it and the national purpose which it may serve;

- allocate and disburse, out of the Fund of the Commission, such grants to institutions deemed to be Universities in pursuance of declaration made by the Central Government under section 3, as it may deem necessary, for one or more of the following purposes, namely :—

- for maintenance in special case,

† Substituted for "necessary for the development of such Universities" by the University Grants Commission (Amendment) Act, 1972 (33 of 1972), S. 3 (17.6.1972).

- (ii) for development,
(iii) for any other general or specified purpose;]
- establish, in accordance with the regulations made under this Act, institutions for providing common facilities, services and programmes for a group of universities or for the universities in general and maintain such institutions or provide for their maintenance by allocating and disbursing out of the Fund of the Commission such grants as the Commission may deem necessary;]
- (d) recommend to any University the measures necessary for the improvement of University education and advise the University upon the action to be taken for the purpose of implementing such recommendation;
- (e) advise the Central Government or any State Government on the allocation of any grants to Universities for any general or specified purpose out of the Consolidated Fund of India or the Consolidated Fund of the State, as the case may be;
- (f) advise any authority, if such advice is asked for, on the establishment of a new University or on proposals connected with the expansion of the activities of any University;
- (g) advise the Central Government or any State Government or University on any question which may be referred to the Commission by the Central Government or the State Government or the University, as the case may be;
- (h) collect information on all such matters related to University education in India and other countries as it thinks fit and make the same available to any University;
- (i) require a University to furnish it with such information as may be needed relating to the financial position of the University or the studies in the various branches of learning undertaken in that University, together with all the rules and regulations relating to the standards of teaching and examination in that University respecting each of such branches of learning;
- (j) perform such other functions as may be prescribed or as may be deemed necessary by the Commission for advancing the cause of higher education in India or as may be incidental or conducive to the discharge of the above functions.

[†][12A. Regulation of fees and prohibition of donations in certain cases.—

- (1) In this section, —
- (a) “affiliated”, together with its grammatical variations, includes in relation to a college, recognition of such college by, association of such college with, and admission of such college to the privileges of, a university;
- (b) “college” means any institutions, whether known as such or by any other name which provides for a course of study for obtaining any qualification from a university and which, in accordance with the rules and regulations of such university, is recognized as competent to provide for such course of study and present students undergoing such course of study for the examination for the award of such qualification;
- (c) “prosecution”, in relation to a course of study, includes promotion from one part or stage of the course of study to another part of stage of the course of study;
- (d) “qualification” means a degree or any other qualification awarded by a university;
- (e) “regulations” means regulations made under this Act;
- (f) “specified course of study” means a course of study in respect of which regulations of the nature mentioned in sub-section (2) have been made;
- (g) “student” includes a person seeking admission as a student;

[‡] Section 12A, renumbered as S. 12 B, and S. 12-A inserted by the University Grants Commission (Amendment) Act, 1984 (59 of 1984), S. 1 (1-10-1984).

- (h) “university” means a university or institution referred to in sub-sec. (1) of section 22.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generally of the provisions of section 12 if, having regard to —
- (a) the nature of any course of study for obtaining any qualification from any university;
- (b) the types of activities in which persons obtaining such qualification are likely to be engaged on the basis of such qualification;
- (c) the minimum standards which a person possessing such qualification should be able to maintain in his work relating to such activities and the consequent need for ensuring, so far as may be, that no candidate secures admission to such course of study by reason of economic power and thereby prevents a more meritorious candidate from securing admission to such course of study; and
- (d) all other relevant factors,
- the Commission is satisfied that it is necessary so to do in the public interest, it may, after consultation with the university or universities concerned, specify by regulations the matters in respect of which fees may be charged, and the scale of fees in accordance with which fees shall be charged, in respect of those matters on and from such date as may be specified in the regulations in this behalf, by any college providing for such course of study from, or in relation to, any student in connection with his admission to, and prosecution of, such course of study :
- Provided that different matters and different scales of fees may be so specified in relation to different universities or different classes of colleges or different areas.
- (3) Where regulations of the nature referred to in sub-section (2) have been made in relation to any course of study, no college providing for such course of study shall —
- (a) levy or charge fees in respect of any matter other than a matter specified in such regulations;
- (b) levy or charge any fees in excess of the scale of fees specified in such regulations; or
- (c) accept, either directly or indirectly, any payment (otherwise than by way of fees) or any donation or gift (whether in cash or kind), from, or in relation to any student in connection with his admission to, and prosecution of, such course of study.
- (4) If, after making, in relation to a college providing for a specified course of study, an inquiry in the manner provided by regulations, and after giving such college a reasonable opportunity of being heard, the Commission is satisfied that such college has contravened the provisions of sub-section (3), the Commission may, with the previous approval of the Central Government, pass an order prohibiting such college from presenting any students then undergoing such course of study therein to any university for the award of the qualification concerned.
- (5) The Commission shall forward a copy of the order made by it under sub-section (4) to the university concerned, and on and from the date of receipt by the university of a copy of such order, the affiliation of such college to such university shall, in so far as it relates to the course of study specified in such order, stand terminated and on and from the date of termination of such affiliation and for a period of three years thereafter affiliation shall not be granted to such college in relation to such or similar course of study by that or any other university.
- (6) On the termination of the affiliation of any college under sub-section (5), the Commission shall take all such steps as it may consider appropriate for safeguarding the interests of the students concerned.
- (7) The provisions of this section and the regulations made for the purposes of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force.]

[12B]. Prohibition regarding giving of any grant to a University not declared by the Commission fit to receive such grant.— No grant shall be given by the Central Government, the Commission, or any other organization receiving any funds from the Central Government, to a University which is established after the commencement of the University Grants Commission (Amendment) Act, 1972, unless the Commission has, after satisfying itself as to such matters as may be prescribed, declared such University to be fit for receiving such grant.]

13. Inspection.— (1) For the purpose of ascertaining the financial needs of a University or its standards of teaching, examination and research, the Commission may, after consultation with the University, cause an inspection of any department or departments thereof to be made in such manner as may be prescribed and by such person or persons as it may direct.
- (2) The Commission shall communicate to the University the date on which any inspection under sub-sec. (1) is to be made and the University shall be entitled to be associated with the inspection in such manner as may be prescribed.¹
- (3) The Commission shall communicate to the University its views in regard to the results of any such inspection and may, after ascertaining the opinion of the University, recommend to the University the action to be taken as a result of such inspection.
- (4) All communications to a University under this section shall be made to the executive authority thereof and the executive authority of the University shall report to the Commission the action, if any, which is proposed to be taken for the purpose of implementing any such recommendation as is referred to in sub-sec. (3).

14. Consequences of failure of Universities to comply with recommendations of the Commission.— If any University [grants affiliation in respect of any course of study to any college referred to in sub-section (5) of section 12A in contravention of the provisions of that sub-section or] fails within a reasonable time to comply with any recommendation made by the Commission under S. 12 or S. 13, [or contravenes the provisions of any rule made under clause (f) or clause (g) of sub-sec. (2) of S. 25, or of any regulation made under clause (e) or (f) or clause (g) of section 26.] the Commission, after taking into consideration the cause, if any, shown by the University [for such failure or contravention,] may withhold from the University the grants proposed to be made out of the Fund of the Commission.

15. Payment of the Commission.— The Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, pay to the Commission in each financial year such sums as may be considered necessary for the performance of the functions of the Commission under this Act.

16. Fund of the Commission.— (1) The Commission shall have its own Fund and all sum which may, from time to time, be paid to it by the Central Government and all the receipts of the Commission (including any sum which any State Government or any other authority or person may hand over to the Commission) shall be carried to the Fund and all payments by the Commission shall be made therefrom.

(2) All moneys belonging to the Fund shall be deposited in such banks or invested in such manner as may, subject to the approval to the Central Government be decided by the Commission.

(3) The Commission may spend such sums as it thinks fit for performing its functions under this Act, and such sums shall be treated as expenditure payable out of the Fund of the Commission.

² Substituted for "allowed by the Post Office Savings Bank". Assented on 30 June 1968.

(3) Applicability : These rules are intended to provide extra retirement benefit which is in the form of ex-gratia payment to the employees of the University. They shall apply to :

- (i) All employees joining service in the University on or after the date of coming into force of these rules.
- (ii) All employees who are in the service of the University on 1-4-1969 and opt for the gratuity scheme under these rules in the manner detailed in clause 4 below.

These rules shall not apply to the following persons :

- (a) Employees holding an appointment under contract, unless the terms of contract provide otherwise,
- (b) an appointment for a fixed term,
- (c) an appointment on fixed pay,
- (d) an appointment on re-employment, [.....]¹
- (e) employees on work-charge basis.

(4) Option :

- (i) Employees in service of the University on 1-4-69 shall have the right to opt for this scheme or (b) to continue existing CPF scheme of the University. Option shall be exercised and communicated to the Registrar in writing within 3 months from the date of notification of the Statute. Option once exercised shall be final and irrevocable, and in case no option is received by the date specified for the purpose it shall be deemed that employee has opted for the gratuity scheme under these rules.

Exception :

In case of an employee who is absent from duty on the date of the notification of these rules, on account of being on deputation or study leave either in India or abroad, the Registrar shall send a copy of this Statute to such an employee and shall ask him to exercise his option in the manner and within the period specified above.

- (ii) In the case of an employee who was in the service of the University on the date of coming into force of these rules and died whilst still in service on the same date or on a subsequent date before having opportunity of exercising the option under clause (i) above, the person or persons validly nominated under Statute 33 for receiving the amount standing to the credit of the employee's Provident Fund, can make specific request to the Vice-Chancellor to permit the nominee or nominees jointly, to opt for the gratuity scheme and the Vice-Chancellor shall have the discretion to accede to the request of the said nominee or nominees of the deceased provided that any [...] payment already made or agreed to be made on monthly basis to the nominees of the deceased shall reckon towards the amount of death gratuity admissible to him/her under Clause 10.

- (5) (i) In the case of all employees of the University to whom these rules are applicable the University's share of contribution to the Provident Fund will be reduced by 1/3% from the date of commencement of University contribution to the P.F. in each case which shall be transferred to the Gratuity Fund.

[Note : The fraction in the amount, calculated on this basis shall be rounded off to the nearest 5 paise.]

- (ii) Every temporary employee of the University who under Statute 33 is not eligible to receive the University share of contribution to the Provident Fund, shall subscribe @ 1/3% of his/her substantive pay every month to the Gratuity Fund. In the event of such an employee leaving the service of the University due to any reason whatsoever, except when the employee is dismissed from the service in the University before he/she becomes eligible for payment of gratuity in terms of clause 6 and 9, the total amount so subscribed by the temporary employee to the Gratuity Fund shall be refunded to him.

- (iii) On the date of coming into force of this gratuity scheme the University shall constitute a Gratuity Fund by :

- (a) Diverting from the Provident Fund accounts of all existing employees who opt for the Gratuity scheme, the amount at the rate of 1/3% from University's share of contribution already credited to the Provident Fund from date on which such contributions by the University started in each case.
- (b) Paying into the Fund every month an amount equal to the 1/3% (not to be credited to the employee's Provident Fund) as University's share of contribution in terms of clause 5(i) plus the amount of subscription for Gratuity at the rate of 1/3% realised from the temporary employees in terms of clause 5(ii) above.

- (6) Gratuity shall be payable to an employee on his rendering satisfactory service to the University till the date he attains superannuation or the date of retirement after extension or his death while in service or on termination of service or leaving service otherwise than on dismissal.

Provided that no gratuity shall be payable to an employee if he resigns from the University service before completing two years of continuous service in the University.¹

Nominations

- (7) (i) Every employee eligible for the benefits of the gratuity scheme of the University, shall be required to sign a Nomination Form (in triplicate) as may be prescribed by the University and send the same through the concerned Head of Department/Office of registration in the office of the Registrar of the University.
- (ii) The employee may, from time to time, add, change or cancel one or more nominees by written application addressed to the Registrar through the concerned Head of Department/Office.
- (iii) In case of an employee who died while in service and failed to nominate any person to receive the amount of gratuity payable under these rules, or in case the nominee also dies, before payment of the gratuity amount to him/her, the payment of gratuity may be authorised at the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor, to a person or persons; who produces/court and executes/ execute an indemnity bond to refund the amount of gratuity so paid to him/her/them by the University in the event of his/her/their title to succession being found defective.

(a) St. 35 (6) as incorporated by rules assented on 28 April 1973 was :

"Gratuity shall be payable at the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor to an employee on his rendering satisfactory service to the University till the date he attains the age of superannuation or the date of retirement after extension, or his death while in service, or on termination of service otherwise than on dismissal.

Provided that the amount of gratuity payable to an employee under this Statute shall be reduced by an amount equal to the value of any loss or damage to University property including money caused on account of negligence or criminal offence, or on account of contributory negligence resulting in any loss of University property or money."

(b) This was substituted by the following by an amendment assented on 16 June 1976.

"(6) Gratuity shall be payable at the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor to an employee on his rendering satisfactory service to the University or on his attaining the age of superannuation or on retirement after extension in service or retirement before attaining the age of superannuation or on resignation or on his death while in service or on termination of service otherwise than on dismissal.

Provided that no gratuity shall be payable to an employee if he resigns from the University service before completing two years of continuous service in the University."

(c) The Present provision was substituted by amendment assented on 28 October 1985.

² Substituted. Amendment assented on 18 July 1987.

maximum gratuity payable shall stand revised to the amount revised by State Government for its employees from time to time.

Provided that the Gratuity payable with effect from 28-12-1991 to 31-12-1996 shall be 16½ months 'emoluments' or Rs. 85,000/- whichever is less.

Provided that the Gratuity payable with effect from 1-9-1986 to 27-12-1991 shall be 16½ months 'emoluments' or Rs.75,000/- whichever is less.

Provided that the Gratuity payable with effect from 1-1-1982 to 30-3-1986 shall be 16½ month 'pay' or Rs.36,000/- whichever is less.

Provided further that the Gratuity payable with effect from 31-10-1974 to 31-12-81 shall be 15 months 'Pay' or Rs. 30,000/- whichever is less.

Provided further that the Gratuity payable with effect from 1-4-74 to 30-10-74 shall be 15 months pay or Rs. 24,000/- whichever is less.

Provided further that the Gratuity payable in case of employee retiring from 1-4-69 to 31-3-74 will be as follows:

- a) An employee retiring upto 31st March, 1970. 3 months' pay or normal gratuity, whichever is less.
- b) An employee retiring upto and on 31st March, 1971. 3½ months' pay or normal gratuity, whichever is less.
- c) An employee retiring upto and on 31st March, 1972. 4 months' pay or normal gratuity, whichever is less.
- d) An employee retiring upto and on 31st March, 1973. 4½ months' pay or normal gratuity, whichever is less.
- e) An employee retiring upto and on 31st March, 1974. 5 months' pay or normal gratuity, whichever is less.

- (ii) For calculating the completed six monthly period of continuous service shown in Appendix I the period or periods spent by the employee on leave without pay or period(s) spent on deputation for which no P.F. contribution has been received from the foreign employer or from the employee in lieu of the foreign employer, shall be excluded.

- (9) A person in temporary employment who ceases to be in the University service on account of superannuation or retirement after extension in service or termination after completing not less than 5 years' continuous service shall be, if otherwise eligible for payment of gratuity under these rules, paid gratuity at the rate of 1/3 of a month's pay for

Gratuity to temporary employee

Death
Gratuity

(10) In the event of death of an employee, while in service, death gratuity shall be payable to his/her nominee or nominees as under :

A. For Permanent Employees :

- (i) When death occurs after completion of one year. 3 months' pay.
- (ii) When death occurs after completion of 3 years' service. 6 months' pay.
- (iii) When death occurs after completion of 5 years' or more of service. 12 months' pay.

B. For Temporary Employees :

- (i) When death occurs after completion of 1 years' service. 1 month' pay.
- (ii) When death occurs after completion of 3 years' service. 2 months' pay.
- (iii) When death occurs after completion of 5 years' or more of service. 3 months' pay or normal pay

[1]

Note : The word "pay" wherever it occurs means the pay which an employee was receiving immediately before the date of his release from University service on superannuation or retirement after extension in service or termination, death or resignation and includes :

- (a) Basic pay in the time scale,
 - (b) Personal pay which is granted in lieu of loss of substantive pay,
 - (c) Special pay attached to a post; and
 - (d) Dearness pay, if any.
2. If an employee holding a permanent post in a substantive capacity officiates in a higher post (other than tenure post), borne on a cadre which includes permanent posts, continuously for not less than 3 years, and leaves the University service on account of superannuation or retirement after extension in service or termination, while officiating on such a higher post, the pay drawn by the employee as specified in note 1 above on the officiating post shall be taken into account for calculating his/her gratuity provided that no other employee held lien on the higher officiating post and it is certified that but for his/her retirement on superannuation after extension in service or termination of services the employee would have continued to officiate in the higher post.

3. If immediately before release from University service on superannuation or retirement after extension in service or termination, an employee has been absent from duty on leave with allowances, his/her pay for purpose of gratuity shall be taken what he/she would have drawn had he/she not been absent from duty on leave.

(11) In case provisions of these rules cause undue hardship to an employee, the Syndicate may on merits of each case relax the provision of these rules by issue of specific orders.

(12) The power of interpreting the rules shall vest in the Syndicate and the decision of the Syndicate shall be final.

⁴ Added. Assented on 8 March 1988.

[42. In all cases where elections are held at a meeting of any of the authorities, except in cases of casual vacancies, the notice of the meeting at which the election is to be held shall be sent to the members at least 30 clear days before the date of the meeting. Nominations shall be sent to the Registrar so as to reach him at least 15 clear days before the day of the meeting, and the Registrar shall send a list of such nominations to the members of the authority concerned at least 8 clear days before the day of the meeting. In case an election is held by post, the procedure laid down in the case of the election of members from the registered graduate constituency, shall in so far as possible be followed at the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor.]¹

[42. (a) This procedure will not however apply in cases where members are to be co-opted to any University body. For such co-option the proposals may be made at the meeting itself.]²

[43. Each nomination shall be in writing, and shall be dated and signed by two members of the authority concerned.

No person shall be nominated as a candidate for election unless he signified his consent on the nomination paper.]¹

[44. A candidate thus nominated for election may withdraw his candidature at any time before the poll is taken at the meeting, either personally or by writing a letter addressed and sent to the Registrar so as to reach him before the hour fixed for the meeting.]¹

[45. If the number of candidates nominated exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, poll shall be taken at the meeting. Ballot papers with the names of persons nominated thereon will be furnished at the meetings held for the purpose of making the election. All the members present at the meeting shall be entitled to vote in the election. The Vice-Chancellor in the case of elections by the Senate, the Syndicate and the Academic Council, shall determine the time during which the ballot box shall be kept open for the receipt of ballot papers and this time-limit shall be notified to the voters in the notice of election. The scrutiny shall be conducted by the Registrar and not less than two scrutinisers to be selected by the Chairman of the meeting from among those present at the meeting.]¹

[46. If the nominations received are less than or equal to the seats to be filled in, the persons so nominated shall be deemed to have been duly elected. For the remaining vacancies fresh nominations shall be invited at the meeting itself and the election held.]¹

[47. The election of two teachers to the Syndicate as required under Section 16(1)(vii) of *Jai Narain Vyas University, Jodhpur Act, 1962 (as amended from time to time) shall be held in accordance with the system of proportional representation by means of single transferable vote and the voting at such election shall be by secret ballot.]¹

*148. (i) At least 60 days prior to the date on which the election is to be held the Vice-Chancellor shall nominate a Returning Officer for the election who may be Registrar or a Dean of Faculty. The election shall be held in the manner hereinafter provided. The nomination of the Returning Officer shall be notified.

(ii) The Returning Officer shall prepare the Electoral List (Roll) comprising names of all those eligible to vote at the election and at least 45 days before the date on which the election is to be held publish the said list alongwith the Notification of Election. The Notification and the electoral list shall be given due/wide publicity and their copies shall also be made available to a voter on demand at a price to be fixed by the Returning Officer.

(iii) Objections to the electoral list, if any, shall be required to be made in writing and should reach the Returning Officer upto the prescribed time on the date notified as last date for receiving such objections which shall not be earlier than 15 days from the day on which the electoral list was published. Such date and time for objections shall be notified in the Notification of Election.

(iv) After considering the objections to the electoral list the Returning Officer shall correct the Electoral list within 3 days of the last date fixed for receipt of objections and publish the corrections made.

If an objection is rejected the Returning Officer shall communicate the rejection alongwith the reasons for rejection to the person who had filed the objection within 7 days of the last date for receipt of objections.

(v) As soon as possible after the publication of corrections in the Electoral list the Returning Officer shall by a second notification notify:

(a) the date and time on that date by which the nominations may be filed provided that this date shall not be less than 7 days from the days of publication of the second notification,

(b) the date and time when the nomination papers shall be scrutinized and the place where such scrutiny shall be held,

(c) the last date and time upto which a candidate nominated for election may withdraw his candidature which shall not be less than 3 days from the date of publication of the list of validly nominated candidate,

- (d) the date on which the election shall be held which shall be at least 15 days from the day on which the list of candidates who remain in field after withdrawals, if any, is published,
- (e) the place where the polling for election shall be held and the duration of time during which such polling shall be done.

(vi) The date of publication of notification or of any other information regarding election shall be the day on which such notification/information is received by the various Departments/Colleges/Institutions. 'Publication' for all the purpose of election means that the notification is to be sent to all the Departments/Institutions of the University and the Colleges.

(vii) The nominations shall be made in the prescribed form and must be dated and signed by the proposer and the seconder and must contain their name and designation in full as per the electoral list. The proposer and the seconder must be electors in the constituency from which the election is to be held. No person shall be nominated for election unless he signified his consent in writing on the nomination paper. The signatures of proposer, the seconder and the person nominated shall be attested by an Attesting Officer who shall be one of the following :

- (1) The Deans of the Faculties of *Jai Narain Vyas University, Jodhpur.
- (2) The Heads of Departments of *Jai Narain Vyas University, Jodhpur.
- (3) The Principal of any one of the Colleges of *Jai Narain Vyas University, Jodhpur.

(viii) An elector may propose or second not more than one person.

(ix) As soon as possible, after the time fixed for receipt of the nominations, at a time and place fixed by the Returning Officer, he or any person or persons nominated by him shall scrutinise the nomination papers. The candidate or his agent duly authorised by him in writing in this behalf shall be entitled to be present at such scrutiny.

(x) The nomination paper shall be rejected if it is incomplete in any respect. The nomination paper shall be rejected if name or designation etc. of any one of the proposer, seconder or the candidate nominated fails to conform to what is mentioned in the electoral list or if the attestation has not been properly made or for any other reason that in the opinion of the person scrutinizing the nominations justifies such a rejection.

(xi) In case of any dispute about rejection of a nomination paper or whether a nomination has been validly made the decision of the scrutinizer shall be final. Any dispute regarding the validity of the nomination paper shall be made in writing. If a candidate or his agent wishes to obtain the reason of rejection of the candidate's nomination paper or the reason for rejection of any dispute raised by him, the Returning Officer shall communicate the reasons in writing.

(xii) After the scrutiny of the nomination papers the Returning Officer shall publish the list of the candidates whose nominations are found to have been validly made.

If the number of candidates validly nominated does not exceed the number of vacancies to be filled, the candidates so nominated shall be declared to have been elected.

(xiii) A candidate may withdraw his candidature in writing by the time notified for making such withdrawal. A candidate once having communicated his intention to withdraw in writing to the Returning Officer shall not be allowed to cancel his withdrawal.

(xiv) The Returning Officer shall, after the expiry of the time fixed for withdrawal, prepare a final list of the candidates in run for election and publish it along with the information of place, date and timings of polling for the elections which shall be held at least after 15 days of this notification.

(xv) If the number of candidates left in the field, after the final withdrawal, does not exceed the number of vacancies to be filled, the candidates so remaining shall be declared to have been elected.

(xvi) The Returning Officer shall get the voting papers printed in alphabetical order of the names of the candidates. He shall appoint the Presiding Officer and other election staff, necessary for the purpose.

(xvii) On the day fixed for polling, the voter shall cast their votes in person. No postal ballot shall be allowed. The elections shall be held in accordance with the system of proportional representation by means of a single transferable vote and the voting at such election shall be by secret ballot. The general procedure of proportionate representation shall be adopted in counting and declaration of result.

(xviii) The Presiding Officer shall maintain the account of ballot papers printed, issued, consumed and the number of ballot papers spoiled. When the ballot paper is issued to an elector he shall be asked to sign in token thereof. If a ballot paper is spoiled by an elector before he inserts it into the ballot box the Presiding Officer shall issue another ballot paper and shall preserve spoilt ballot paper separately in a sealed cover.

(xix) Before the polling begins the candidates or their authorized agents shall be entitled to inspect the polling booth and the ballot boxes. The ballot box as far as possible must be closed in presence of candidates or their authorized agents and their signatures obtained in certification thereof. The candidates or their authorized agents shall also be entitled to note down the account of ballot papers.

(xx) At the time of polling, typographical errors in name or Department of the elector shall be not taken in consideration in debarring an elector from voting, if the Presiding Officer is satisfied with the identity of the voter.

However, if the name of an elector appears in the concerned electoral roll, but on the day of polling he ceases to be a voter in that constituency, the Presiding Officer shall after ascertaining the correct position from the Returning Officer debar such voter from casting his vote.

In case of all disputes regarding the eligibility, identity of voters, voting procedure etc. unless specifically provided here, the decision of the Presiding Officer shall be final.

(xxi) An elector shall record his vote by placing on the ballot paper the figure 1 opposite the name of the candidate for whom he intends to vote and may in addition indicate the order of his choice or preference for as many other candidates as he pleases by placing against their names the figure 2, 3, 4, 5 and so on, in consecutive numerical order.

(xxii) Preference shall be indicated only by placing the Arabic numerals 1, 2, 3, 4 etc. against the names of the candidates for whom the voter intends to vote. The preference indicated in any other manner shall render the vote invalid.

(xxiii) A vote shall be invalidated, if

- (a) the figure 1 standing alone indicating a first preference is not placed;
- (b) the figure 1 standing alone, indicating a first preference, is placed opposite the names of more than one candidate;
- (c) any preference is repeated;
- (d) figures other than the Arabic numerals placed either alone or in addition to the Arabic numerals;
- (e) it cannot be determined for which candidate the first preference of the voter is recorded;

(f) any mark is placed by the voter by which he may afterwards be identified;

(g) there is any erasing or alternation in the figures indicating the voter's preferences.

(xxiv) Soon after the polling is over and at such time notified by the Presiding Officers the voting papers shall be scrutinised and counted by the Returning Officer with the help of such other persons as may be nominated by him for the purpose of counting. At the scrutiny or counting of the ballot papers candidates or their authorized agents may be present if they so choose. After the counting is over, the Returning Officer shall declare the result. However, the Returning Officer shall before declaration of results afford an opportunity to the candidates or their authorized agents present to submit any objection that they may have to make. This shall be recorded in the form of a certificate signed by the candidates or the agents present.

(xxv) If any dispute regarding the counting or result is made in writing the Returning Officer shall declare the result only after considering the objection raised. In case the objection is rejected the person making the objection shall be entitled to obtain the reasons of rejection in writing.

(xxvi) In as far as possible elections must be completed. By the date on which the term of previous incumbents expires. However, the Vice-Chancellor may, for good reason postpone the election provided that the election shall have to be completed within 3 months from the date on which the term of previous incumbents expired.

(xxvii) After the declaration of result any dispute about the validity of election shall have to be preferred within 15 days from the date of the declaration of the result. No dispute preferred after the time limit prescribed shall be valid. The dispute regarding elections after the declaration of the results shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of the Act that is S. 31 of the Act.

(xxviii) All such records like used and unused and spoilt ballot papers, voters, signatures list, record of counting etc. shall be preserved in separate sealed covers on which the signatures of the candidates or their authorized agents present at the time of counting shall be obtained and they all shall be sealed then in a bigger cover. The sealed bundle thus prepared shall be preserved for 15 days after the election result is declared and shall be destroyed thereafter if no dispute is raised within that time. If any dispute is raised the bundles shall be sent to the Authority deciding the dispute under Section 31 of Act, if required.]

Each Department shall have a Head who may be a Professor, if there is no Professor, a Reader and whose duties and functions and terms and conditions of appointment shall be prescribed by the Ordinances.
Provided that if there are more Professors or, as the case may be Readers than one in any Department no persons shall be appointed to be the Head of any Department except in accordance with the provisions made in respect thereof by the Statutes.
2. Provided further that if there is no Professor or Reader in Department, the senior most teacher shall act as the Head of that Department.
The following was substituted for the first proviso by amendment assented by Chancellor on 9 May 1972.
"Provided that if there are more professors or readers than one in any department, the Head of the Department shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor according to such seniority as has been determined and in the absence of such clearly determined seniority then the Head of the Department shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor at his discretion till such seniority is determined or for a period not exceeding 3 years whichever is earlier."
3. Vide assent dated 24 January 1984, the following was substituted as Statute 8(1)(c) :
"Each Department shall have a Head who shall be appointed in the following order of priority;
 - (i) The Professor or the seniormost Professor if there are more Professors than one;
 - (ii) If the Professor who is head of the Department under Clause (i) above goes on leave without pay/extra ordinary leave/deputation for the purpose of taking employment elsewhere or if he goes on any other type of leave for a period of not less than one month, the next seniormost Professor.
Provided that if there are more professors than one or only one Professor in the Department and the Vice-Chancellor is satisfied that it will not be in the best interest of the Department to appoint/continue the seniormost among them as the Head, he may for reasons stated in writing and on approval of the Syndicate appoint the next seniormost Professor as Head or if there is only one Professor the seniormost Reader.
 - (iii) If there is no Professor or if all the Professors are on leave as defined in Clause (ii), the seniormost reader;
 - (iv) If the Reader who is Head of the Department under Clause (iii) above goes on leave without pay/extra ordinary leave/deputation for the purpose of taking employment elsewhere or if he goes on any other type of leave for a period of not less than one month, the next seniormost Reader;
 - (v) If there is no Professor and no Reader or if all of them are on leave as defined in Clause (ii) & (iv) the seniormost Lecturer in the Department shall be appointed as Head.
"Provided that if at any time the Vice-Chancellor is satisfied that it will not be in the best interest of the department to continue the seniormost Reader or Lecturer, as Head, he may for reasons stated in writing and on approval of the Syndicate appoint the next seniormost person in the department as Head."
