Introduction to the Conference

Mahatma Gandhi launched the Quit India Movement (Bharat Chhodo Andolan), often referred as the August Movement (August Kranti), in Bombay to call for an end to the British rule in India during the World War II, on August 8, 1942. Therefore, on the occasion of 81st year of Quit India Movement, the Gandhian Study Centre of JNVU is going to organize an International Conference on "Gandhian way of World Peace and Non-violence in Contemporary Times" during August 8th to August 10th, 2023. Through this conference, the study Centre wants to keep the thoughts and principles of the Mahatma Gandhi permanent and alive and on the occasion of the 150th birth anniversary year of Gandhi, the study centre wants that Gandhian ideology and principles and their significance and applicability in the modern era be discussed. The conference will provide a platform to the youth, researchers, students and academicians for research, study and understanding of Gandhian technique of non-violence.

Aims / Objectives:

Creating awareness on social dimension of peace and non-violence for communal harmony and promoting the spirit of composite culture.

Spreading the ideas of Gandhi to reconstruct the society on moral, ethical and spiritual foundation.

To provide a platform for exchanging ideas with the scholars, researchers who are working on Gandhian Philosophy and ideas.

To analyse the relevance of Gandhian Philosophy and apply it to contemporary problems.

To propagate social and political ideas of Mahatma Gandhi among students, scholars and other members of the society

To develop awareness among the students, scholars and youth about Gandhian Philosophy

To provide input to the government about the teachings of Gandhism for an ideal governance

To promote research in the field of Gandhism

To clear misconceptions and illusion among masses about Gandhi and Gandhian Ideology

Contemporary analysis about the role of social media and Gandhian ideology

To make suggestions to eradicate the contemporary violence and unrest and make healthy environment for peace.

To revisit Gandhian Philosophy and its relevance in present context.

The university focuses on building a stimulating and exhilarating academic environment through the confluence of ideas, debates, and discussions.

About the Centre

Gandhian Study Centres were started in universities and institutions across the country during the year 1994, on the occasion of Mahatma Gandhi's 125th Birth anniversary. The aim of this centre was to spread the principle and ideology of Mahatma Gandhi. This Gandhi centre of JNVU was established on 15 October, 2005. This centre was established with the financial support of University Grant Commission. The centre is working smoothly and spreading Gandhian thought and philosophy. The renovated office of Gandhian study centre was inaugurated by Shri Ashok Gehlot, the Hon'ble chief minister of Rajasthan on 30 January, 2021. The Centre has developed a good conference room. Several events like seminars, photo exhibitions of Gandhi, rally, quiz competitions for youths and students were organized by the centre at various colleges, schools, institutes and villages. The university has constituted an advisory committee of Gandhian Study Centre for smooth functioning.
