Dear Delegate, Greetings !

In continuation of the first circular sent by the Secretary, Archaeology & Epigraphy Congress, I take the privilege of inviting you to participate in the fifth session of Archaeology & Epigraphy Congress to be held on 7-8 October, 2023 at Department of History, Jai Narain Vyas University, Jodhpur.

About the Archaeology & Epigraphy Congress

Archaeology & Epigraphy Congress was established under the aegis of Archaeology & Epigraphy Society in 2019 to bring together scholars working in the field of archaeology, beginning from the period of the emergence of human beings in the region to 1947 A.D. It encompasses archaeology beneath the ground and above the surface.

Four sessions of the Congress have been successfully conducted so far. The first session was graciously organized by BJS Rampuria Jain College, Bikaner at the campus of Institute of Management Studies, Bikaner at which Prof. J.S. Kharakwal, Udaipur, well known Archaeologist, delivered his presidential address.

The second session which was organized by Gyan Vidhi P.G. Maha-vidyalaya, Bikaner, witnessed the presidential address delivered by well-known historian Dr. Girija Shankar Sharma. This session was attended by more than 100 delegates. The sessions were of great success and delegates presented their papers on PPT mode.

The third session was organized by SKD University, Hanumangarh, where more than 120 delegates participated. The highlight of this session was a visit by the delegates to Kalibanga, a famous archaeological site of the Indus Valley Civilization.

The latest fourth session was hosted by the Institute of Advanced Studies in Education Sardarshahar, Churu (Rajasthan), where more than 170 delegates participated. The Presidential address was delivered by well known historian Professor G.S.L. Devra, former Vice chancellor, VMO University, Kota.

About the University

Jai Narain Vyas University Jodhpur was established in 1962 as university of Jodhpur. It is multi-disciplinary university catering to the needs of more than twenty-two thousand regular and more than forty-five thousand private students with 368 affiliated colleges. This is NAAC B++ grade university of western Rajasthan. Since its inception, the university continues to act as a catalyser of social mobility through its various departments and more than two hundred programmes it offers. With a humble beginning, the university today stands tall as a global institution of eminence in the the academic landscape of the nation serving the need for higher education in five districts of Rajasthan namely Pali, Jalore, Barmer, Jaisalmer and Jodhpur. The university focuses on building stimulating and exhilarating environment through the confluence of ideas, debates and deliberations.

About the Department

The Department of history had been the part of Jaswant College established in 1929 AD. Since the establishment of the University of Jodhpur (later known as Jai Narain Vyas University) in 1962. The Department of History became its component. Now it is located in the new campus. Distinguished historians have graced the chair of the Department. Prominent among them were Professors B.P. Saxena, K.S. Lal, Dashrath Sharma, R.P. Vyas, S.R. Goyal, D.C. Shukla under whose stewardship the department progressed academically. Presently the momentum is maintained under the headship of Professor Sushila Shaktawat. The department offers B.A. (Hons.), M.A., Ph.D., P.G. Diploma and Certificate Courses in Manuscripts and Archival Records and Tourism. The department houses library, smart classrooms and museum, which contains Harappa artefacts and photos of coins. Moreover, the department had organised numerous national seminars.

About Jodhpur

Jodhpur is the second largest city in Rajasthan popularly known as the 'Blue City'. The Jodhpur city was founded in 1459 by Rao Jodha, a Rajput ruler of the Rathore clan. Jodhpur was historically the capital of the Kingdom of Marwar. It is popular tourist destination featuring many palaces, forts and temples, set in the stark landscape of the Thar Desert.

Jodhpur is country's leading academic and research institutions like IIT, AIIMS, NLU, CAZRI, AFRI, FDDI, Maharaja Man Singh Pustak Prakash, Rajasthan Shodh Sansthan, Chopasani and Rajasthan Oriental Research Institute etc. It is well connected to major places of the country by Road, Rail and Air.
